CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.3.3 Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.4.3 Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character's thoughts, words, or actions).
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.5.3 Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., how characters interact).

The notebook page on the left shows the template for character reactions, with the character drawings and writing lines. The right page contains a handwritten student response:

The newspaper article "Local 5th Grader Says, 'Move over, Mr. Webster'" was very interesting.

Mr. Allen understood well. "What is the meaning of this?" He got the article in front of his desk. "Did you talk to that reporter? She seems to know a lot about school and your own school, young man!" the superintendent said.

"The school superintendent was equally upset. 'What is the meaning of this?'" He stopped the article from an 11-year-old child, so surprised. "Why did you have to talk to that reporter? She's not even enough to talk to the reporter to get for the news without articles like this being around them?"

Principal Chatham had the same reaction. She went to Mrs. Green.

"What do you think about this?" she asked.

"I'm not sure."

"I'm not sure either."

Everyone was for the article.
